

Lisbon, 23rd January 2023

Dear Prof. Roberto Gesche

President of the Sociedad Chilena de Geotecnia

We wish you a 2023 with health, peace and happiness.

The Portuguese Geotechnical Society (SPG) would like to invite your Society to submit your contributions to ECSMGE 24. The procedure will be the following:

1. The abstracts for the XVIII European Conference on Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering (<https://www.ecsmge-2024.com>), that will take place in Lisbon, from 26th - 30th August 2024, should integrate:
  - Title.
  - Authors, affiliation, and e-mails.
  - Conference Main Topics.
  - A summary of the paper 150-250 words (Times New Roman 10 pt).
2. The papers will be reviewed by an International Committee integrating members of the Scientific Committee, TCs members and Corporate members. The Organizing Committee aims to index all accepted papers in recognized databases of scientific literature.
We strongly believe that the good quality of the papers will contribute for the success of the Conference.
3. The abstracts and the respective papers should be submitted by the Authors at <https://www.issmge.org/publications/review-platform/ongoing-conferences>
4. Please notice that the deadline to accept (or reject) the abstracts is 30th April 2023.

We thank in advance your valuable support.

With our best regards,

Alexandre Pinto
Chairman of the Organizing Committee

Pedro Sêco e Pinto
